

Individual report 1

IR1

As part of service design

Deadline

- Opened: Wednesday, 3 September 2025, 4:00 PM
- Due: Wednesday, 15 October 2025, 11:59 PM
- Moodle won't accept late submissions. Remember, there is no exception after the deadline has expired.
If there is anything hindering you from submitting, contact me in advance.
 - Rather submit earlier 😊

Individual report 1

INSTRUCTIONS

- Write a report of minimum 3, maximum 5 A4 pages (Font 12)
- Individual work – no collaboration allowed
- Topic: Reflection on design and service design thinking

Steps to follow:

1. Identify and present aspects of design thinking and service design thinking learned in Lectures 2 and 3, and in the videos (Birger Mager, Fjord)
2. Present your own insights from Tutorial exercises related to aspects from Step 1
3. Connect Steps 1 and 2 to your own practice and experience (e.g., UX, software engineering, front-end, back-end, previous studies)
4. Write a conclusion summarizing key takeaways and opening new questions for reflection and research

IMPORTANT: Make references to the readings when relevant

Individual report 1

INSTRUCTIONS

- Don't be afraid to be critical (even of course material) – provide sound arguments
- References support your arguments
- Diagrams and images are allowed, but explain them and show their relevance
- AI tools use is tricky:
 - Report must show YOUR own personal insights
 - Must reflect YOUR own practice and experience

Individual report 1

STRUCTURE

- Your name and report title:
- Reflection on design and service design thinking: [add your own subtitle]
- AI statement (not included in page limit; see Moodle)
- Sections:
 1. Aspects of design and service design thinking
 2. Insights from tutorial exercises
 3. Connections to your own practice/experience
 4. Conclusion with key takeaways and future reflection questions
- Each paragraph: one idea that supports your main point

Grading

GR1	2nd part of title: relevance related to content of report	Section 1: relevance and clarity, followed instructions	Section 2: relevance and clarity, followed instructions	Section 3: relevance and clarity, followed instructions	Conclusion	Use of appropriate references	Length and general presentation
Impact on grade	+0,5	+1	+1	+1	+0,5	+0,5	+0,5

Individual report 1

Readings

Obligatory (must be used as references):

- Stickdorn, M., Schneider, J., Andrews, K., & Lawrence, A. (2011). This is service design thinking: Basics, tools, cases (Vol. 1). Hoboken: Wiley.
 - Chapter: What is Service Design? – Section: “Definitions: Service Design as an interdisciplinary approach”
 - Chapter: How does service design work? Methods & Tools (whole chapter)
- Clatworthy, S. (2017). Service design thinking. In M. Lüders, T. W. Andreassen, S. Clatworthy, & T. Hillestad (Eds.), Innovating for Trust. Cheltenham: Edward Elgar. pp. 167-182.
- Optional (can be used in addition to above):
 - Dubberly, H. (2004). How Do You Design. Dubberly Design Office
 - Brown, T. (2008). Design Thinking. Harvard Business Review
 - Winograd, T. (1996). Bringing design to software. Library of Congress